

Topic guide

Would you be willing to facilitate the introduction of a screening strategy for AF?

If so/not, why?

What do you see as the main barriers for healthcare professionals in introducing a screening strategy for AF?

How do you think they could be addressed?

What do you see as the main facilitators for healthcare professionals in introducing a screening strategy for AF?

In what way does it facilitate uptake of screening for you?

What information would you require to enable you to facilitate the introduction of a screening strategy for AF?

Where does AF detection/stroke prevention rank for you in terms of a healthcare priority?

Why the high/low ranking?

Is there anything that you would like to add from your point of view in relation to screening/AF/stroke prevention?